Description

Meet the Hyundai H100 Bakkie 2.6D Dropside – a dependable workhorse ready to tackle your toughest jobs. With a crisp white finish, this sturdy pick-up offers a good condition and a well-maintained full service record. Its manual transmission and diesel engine pack a punch with 58kW of power, and the vehicle is designed to be efficient with an average fuel consumption of 10.2 litres per 100 km, giving you an impressive fuel range of about 637 km. The dropside body makes loading and unloading straightforward, perfect for transporting equipment or goods. Safety features include ABS and airbags for peace of mind, while comforts like air conditioning, climate control, and a radio keep you comfortable during long drives. Tackle the road with a maximum speed of 126 km/h – plenty of power for city work or rural routes. The Hyundai H100 Bakkie is a versatile and reliable vehicle from Eshowe Ford, situated in KwaZulu Natal. Whether you're looking for a durable work vehicle or a dependable partner for your business, this stylish white dropside is ready to serve you well.
